Tulare County students entering grades 7 – 12, plus students who may be graduating this year, are eligible to audition for parts in the Tulare County Office of Education Theatre Company's upcoming summer production of Beauty and The Beast, Monday and Tuesday April 11 -12. Auditions will be held in the Elderwood Room at the Office of Education's facility at 7000 Doe Avenue in Visalia at 3:30 p.m. on April 11 and 12.

Beauty and The Beast will be a fully mounted, large-cast production of the Disney classic. The public performances, scheduled for July 22, 23, 28 – 30, 2005 at the L.J. Williams Theatre in Visalia, are part of the Theatre Company's eighth annual summer production. The program was founded by Tulare County Superintendent of Schools Jim Vidak in 1998. "This production has enormous appeal not only for the public, but for the students who grew up with the story," says Mr. Vidak. "We are looking forward to another first class production, including some new special events the public will enjoy."
