Tulare County Office of Education announces: Young Authors' Faire on Display in Education Center April 17 – 21, 2006

Kindergarten through eighth-grade students will soon display their writings at the annual Young Authors' Faire. Students write, illustrate and bind their stories for the public to read. The books are on display for the week of April 17 – 21, 2006, in the Education Center of the Tulare County Office of Education. During the week, visitors are invited to read and comment on the books. An evening reception will be held from 4:00 to 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 20, so that the public can meet the young authors and help celebrate their successes. The Tulare County Office of Education is located at 2637 W. Burrel in Visalia near the County Civic Center.

“I encourage the public to visit and read these wonderful works,” says Tulare County Superintendent of Schools Jim Vidak. The authors' works will be available for viewing beginning at 1:00 p.m. on Monday, April 17. The exhibition will open from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. daily for the remainder of the week, except on Friday, when it will close at 3:00 p.m. For additional information, contact Robert Herman, Public Information Officer, at (559) 733-6606.
