Tulare County Office of Education Announces:
Theatre Company Workshop Presents Jungle Fever at El Diamante High School Theater in Visalia
Saturday, November 18, 2006 · 5:00 and 7:00 pm showings

Visalia –On November 18, the Tulare County Office of Education’s Theatre Company will present a recital production entitled "Jungle Fever," comprised of selections from Disney’s Jungle Book Kids and highlights from The Lion King. The production is the culmination of a 12-week workshop offered semi-annually by the Theatre Company. Approximately 80 students from throughout the county have been preparing for this recital during weekly classes. In addition, members of the Theatre Company’s performing troupe, known as Troupe TCOE, will open the show with jungle-themed selections.

“The Theatre Company workshops offer diverse training in all the theatre arts – singing, dance, acting, set design and costumes,” says Tulare County Superintendent of Schools Jim Vidak. “The students who participate gain confidence and communication skills that will serve them as adults, regardless of the careers they pursue.”
