Tulare County Office of Education Announces:

Tulare County Junior High Leadership Training Friday, September 28, 2007 • 9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. • 7000 Doe Ave., Visalia

Visalia – Students and their advisors from 17 Tulare County middle schools will participate in the annual Junior High Leadership Training Friday, September 28, 2007, in the Elderwood Room of the Tulare County Office of Education’s Doe Avenue Complex (7000 Doe Avenue, Visalia).

The event is coordinated by the Friday Night Live School Liaisons from the Choices program of the Tulare County Office of Education.

The Junior High Leadership Training was created to develop young people’s leadership potential. Student will attend a day full of development activities including: leadership qualities, action plan development, event planning, bullying prevention, drug awareness and a session on CHARACTER COUNTS!.

“In recent months we’ve seen how students have effectively brought statewide attention and change to issues involving alcohol and auto safety. It’s through events like the Tulare County
