Tulare County Office of Education Announces:

Friends of SCICON Announce Annual Honorees

Earlier this month, the Friends of SCICON, a non-profit organization, held its annual SCICON Awards Dinner. The dinner took place at the John Muir Dining Lodge on the SCICON campus.

After a brief business meeting, the following individuals and organizations were recognized for their exceptional support of the SCICON program.

Receiving the Laurel Leaf Awards as the top high school cabin leaders of the year were Denise Oliveras of Strathmore High School, Seth Emerson of Citrus High School (Porterville), Whitney Qualls of Farmersville High School and Manuel Vejar of Tech Prep High School (Tulare). These students were selected out of 1,000 high school cabin leaders as being exemplary role models for the sixth-grade students at SCICON. In addition to their awards, they also received a scholarship from the Friends of SCICON and the Association of California School Administrators Region XI for college expenses.

The Friends of SCICON then presented Awards of Merit to the following individuals and organizations. Bill DeLain, of Southern California Edison, was recognized for his work on behalf of supporting program improvement projects at SCICON. Ann Garner, Career Center Technician,
