Tulare County Office of Education Announces: “Best of Show” Student Art Exhibition now through March 31; Featured Artists’ Reception March 27.

In March, which is California Arts Education Month, the Tulare County Office of Education holds a “Best of Show” Student Art Exhibition. Pieces for the “Best of Show” event are selected from two larger exhibitions, which began in the fall. Schools from throughout Tulare County submit their students’ best work for the two preliminary exhibitions. This year, the “Best of Show” Exhibition features over 100 paintings, drawings and sculptures as selected by a panel of judges.

A reception honoring the students selected for the “Best of Show” Exhibition will be held in the Tulare County Office of Education’s main building at 2637 West Burrel Avenue in Visalia on March 27, 2009. Student artists, their families and members of the public are invited to view the student artwork from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. The artwork can also be seen now through March 31, 2009, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.
