Tulare County Office of Education Announces: University Preparatory High School to hold annual Veterans Day Program

Event details: 8:45– 9:45 a.m., Thursday, November 10, 2016
Moro Building, College of the Sequoias, Visalia campus

Students at University Preparatory High School (UPHS) will celebrate Veterans Day tomorrow in the Moro Building on the College of the Sequoias Visalia campus. The event will begin at 8:45 a.m. with a color guard presentation, followed by performances of the UPHS choir and other student performers. UPHS Principal Eric Thiessen, a Lieutenant Commander in the US Naval Sea Cadet Corps, will also address the students.

The Tulare County Office of Education (TCOE), in partnership with the College of the Sequoias (COS), established UPHS as a high-performance high school on the COS Visalia campus. UPHS is a free, public high school chartered by the Tulare County Board of Education. The high school welcomes all highly-motivated students looking for an accelerated and rigorous academic program that prepares them for college success. UPHS students experience their high school years in a college setting, participate in college classes and earn college credits.

For additional information, contact Eric Thiessen at (559) 730-2529 or (559) 901-3765.
