Tulare County Office of Education Announces: La Sierra Military Academy to dedicate fallen soldier sculpture tomorrow

10:30 a.m. – 12:45 p.m., Thursday, May 25 • 1735 E. Houston Ave., Visalia

In celebration of Memorial Day, the staff and cadets at La Sierra Military Academy will dedicate a fallen soldier sculpture commemorating the men and women who lost their lives in service to our country. The bronze sculpture, which was donated to the school by the Rimpact Foundation with additional support from the Central Valley Vietnam Veterans Club, stands near the entrance to the school at 1735 East Houston Avenue in Visalia. Following the laying of a wreath and dedication of the sculpture at 10:30 a.m., local veterans attending the ceremony will meet with cadets to share memorabilia and experiences from their military careers. Following this presentation, cadets and veterans will enjoy lunch together.
