Tulare County Office of Education Announces:

Nearly 50 projects to be displayed at “Night at the 21st Century Museum”

TCOE holds sixth annual showcase of students mastering 21st century learning skills using Project Based Learning

April 2, 5:00-7:00 p.m. • TCOE Redwood Conference Center, 6200 S. Mooney Blvd., Visalia

Nearly 50 examples of Project Based Learning (PBL) will be featured at the sixth annual Night at the 21st Century Museum event April 2 in the Redwood Conference Center at the Tulare County Office of Education. The event, which showcases fine examples of PBL with an emphasis on the development of the 21st century learning skills (critical thinking, collaboration, communication, creativity, character and citizenship), will include projects from elementary, middle and high school students. Some of the projects to be featured this year include historical presentations, business projects, and agricultural and engineering projects completed by Tulare County students.

Night at the 21st Century Museum celebrates students who are using college and career ready skills that take them beyond the classroom walls and open their eyes to the world that awaits
