Comment: Nominator Olivia Delgadillo says, "I witnessed Brian assisting non-English speaking students in their registration process. While anyone could have stepped in to help, Bryan's unique and nonjudgmental approach truly stood out. He took the time to patiently explain each step, ensuring that every student felt comfortable asking questions to better understand the process. His compassion and genuine concern were evident throughout, creating an atmosphere of support and encouragement. Bryan has a big heart and willingly shares his knowledge with others. Without even realizing it, he fosters connections among students, easing their transition and making the assimilation process smoother."
