

Sylvia Marin

Grade: 3

School: Palo Verde Union School
Palo Verde School District

Pillar: Caring

Comment: Nominator Olivia Delgadillo says, “In a world where the needs of others can often be overlooked, some individuals stand out for their unwavering commitment to helping others without seeking any recognition or reward. I am delighted to nominate Sylvia Marin for exemplifying the Pillar of Caring. During the early weeks of school, I encountered a new student who was non-English speaking, shy, and struggling to complete an assigned task. Sylvia immediately stepped in to offer her support, translating the teacher’s instructions, and sharing strategies to help the student finish the work more efficiently. Sylvia’s strong work ethic, positive attitude, and genuine compassion make her an invaluable addition to her classroom and our school community.”
