Comment: Nominator Kevin Branco says, "Massimo is a vital part of our leadership class and is a perfect candidate for the Pillar of Respect. He respects others and their property, and understands that others have rights and opinions that should be respected. He cares for others and cherishes the fact that no two people are alike. He embraces their differences and accepts them for who they are. I am very proud of the person that Massimo is becoming. Congratulations and keep up the outstanding character!"
