PROJECT AWARE

Advancing Wellness & Resiliency in Education

We're Project AWARE and we're spreading the word that mental health matters in Tulare County! You'll find us at community events, in schools throughout the county, and on Instagram!

During the month of May, which is Mental Health Awareness Month (MHAM), a number of local retailers and community organizations have joined our cause. When you visit the organizations below, mention that you appreciate their support of mental health. Many of the food retailers have created special products just for the month of May!
