

CHARACTER COUNTS!

Student: Andrew Romero

Grade: 2

School: Global Learning Charter School

Comment: Nominator Leisa Jared says, "Andrew does his best to help his classmates resolve disagreements and other issues whenever he can. He tries to help them figure out solutions on their own that are fair to all involved. He is also always eager to participate in class discussions as well as listen to and consider what others have to say."

Pillar represented: Citizenship

Through the Character Counts! program, the Tulare County Office of Education and the Visalia Times-Delta/Tulare Advance Register recognize local students who exhibit good character.
