

CHARACTER COUNTS!

Student: Jeremiah Torres-Hernandez

Grade: 7

School: Global Learning Charter School

Comment: Nominator Amy Downs says, "Jeremiah shows the traits of fairness in many different ways. He is never judgmental or rude. His respectful manners and polite attitude are what stand out the most. Jeremiah is always seeking information on what he does not know or understand. He is curious and inquisitive about all subjects and it's always nice to hear him explain what he has learned."

Pillar represented: Fairness

Through the Character Counts! program, the Tulare County Office of Education and the Visalia Times-Delta/Tulare Advance Register recognize local students who exhibit good character.

