Pillar: Citizenship

Comment: Coach McCaw says, “Jonathan has been a very dedicated, hardworking, and exemplary leader for the boys’ soccer team at Golden West High School. He has been a three-year starter on the varsity team. As a team member, Jonathan has consistently exhibited character traits that any coach would want in a player. Perhaps foremost is his desire to play hard for his team. He seems to never worry about his own statistics or his own success, but only focuses on how he can best help the team. He does much of our team’s difficult and unappreciated work on the field, but that does not seem to bother him because ‘team comes first.’ Moreover, as the captain of the team, Jonathan is an excellent example for the younger players to observe.”
