This session is designed to support teachers in planning their English Language Arts (ELA) block for diverse learners, using the five essential themes of the California ELA/ELD Framework. Participants will leave with:

- Meaning Making: Strategies for boosting students' comprehension and critical thinking.
- Language Development: Effective methods for fostering language growth.
- Effective Expression: Effective strategies, tools, and assessment techniques that support oral and written expression.
- Content Knowledge: Strategies for integrating literacy skills in building content knowledge across the curriculum.
- Foundational Skills: Engaging activities that support phonemic awareness, phonics, decoding/encoding, and fluency skills.
