Enhancing English Learner Success through Designated & Integrated ELD in K-5

Educators will deepen their understanding of both designated and integrated English language development (ELD) within secondary education.

Key Takeaways:

- Understanding Designated and Integrated ELD: Gain a clear distinction between designated and integrated ELD, and understand how each serves a critical role in EL students' language development.
- ELD Standards Alignment: Learn how to align content instruction with ELD standards to meet the linguistic needs of EL students while teaching grade-level content.
- Practical ELD Strategies for All Classrooms: Discover research-based instructional strategies to support English learners in content areas such as math, science, history, and language arts.
- Designated ELD Instructional Design: Learn to develop focused ELD lessons that target language acquisition while being responsive to students' proficiency levels.
