CCLA (California Collaboration for Learning Acceleration) welcomes Dr. Nicki Newton.

Join us in welcoming Dr. Nicki Newton to discuss what high-quality math intervention looks like through the use of learning acceleration. Acceleration is about equity, which allows ALL students to access an engaging, standards-based, academically rigorous, grade-level curriculum.

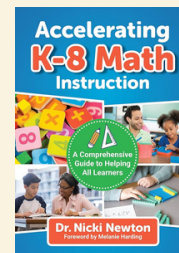

Together, we will:

- Understand the research behind learning acceleration and how it helps all students achieve at high levels.
- Experience learning acceleration and how it impacts math intervention.
- Engage in how to plan for learning acceleration.
- Envision next steps in learning acceleration with your own students.
