

Powerful Partnerships in Transitional Kindergarten Series

Are you a TK teacher or TK paraprofessional trying to figure out better ways to work together? Are you always stretched for time to discuss ways to improve the learning day for early learners?

The focus of the four-day learning series is to improve the working relationship and practices of the TK and paraprofessional classroom team.

- Each team attendee will be paid a $500 stipend for the full, two-day learning series launch.*
- Each team attendee will be paid a $250 stipend for full evening attendance.*

Register your TK team and discover new teaming strategies to support effective communication and a positive learning environment.
