Welcome to the great outdoors, Central California support staff! In celebration of the survival skills that you apply every day, join us at the 32nd Annual Tulare County Support Staff Conference. You deserve to relax and enjoy breakout sessions designed to support personal and professional development, incredible food and prizes, vendors, and the opportunity to network with support staff from throughout the Valley!

Keynote Speaker

Mike Robbins is a former college and professional baseball player (at Stanford University and with the Kansas City Royals). After an injury ended his playing career, Mike transitioned from the sports field to the corporate world, founding his own consulting firm. Since then, he uses his energetic style, sense of humor, and practical wisdom to deliver keynote speeches.

Mike blends relatable stories with actionable advice, making complex concepts accessible and inspiring for diverse audiences. His five books, including his latest, We're All in This Together, have made him a leading voice in the field. Mike is known as a leadership expert for captivating audiences with his dynamic and engaging approach and passion for helping people and teams thrive.
